

The Real Estate Institute of Canada (REIC) 'Member-Get-A-Member' Program Outline and Procedures

Established: August 2010

Last Updated: August 2010

The REIC 'Member-Get-A-Member' Program is designed to encourage REIC Members to promote membership in the Real Estate Institute of Canada. Members are encouraged to share the benefits of REIC to colleagues, industry leaders, business partners and any other individuals that they come into contact with during the day to day operations of their professional lives.

Every time you recruit a new member, you strengthen the Real Estate Institute of Canada. A vital and growing REIC means greater recognition of the real estate profession, improved education and networking opportunities for all members, and the advancement of our designations nationwide.

Whenever someone you refer applies to REIC and is approved as a candidate member in good standing, the Institute will thank you with a $100 voucher that can be used to purchase a variety of products and services from the REIC National office.

These include:

- REIC Annual Membership Dues
- REIC Course Tuition
- The REIC Annual Conference
- Products from the REIC Store

Please note that the vouchers cannot be used on the following items:

- Any items from your local chapter
- Registration at chapter functions
- Any items/dues pertaining to the Institute of Real Estate Management

Vouchers expire 1 year after the date of issue and have no cash value. The entire voucher must be used at the point of purchase as the REIC national office will not carry a balance forward on the amount not spent.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Admissions and Membership Coordinator Shelley Barfoot-O'Neill at 1.800.542.7342 ext. 26 or shelley.oneill@reic.com.
